MR. LANDINO explained that he could not pay his restitution or support his family without a job.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: JANUARY 21, 2009

MR. LANDINO stated he has worked at the restaurant for two years, but had not served alcohol after learning his initial work card application had been denied. MAYOR GOODMAN stressed that the business could lose its licenses if MR. LANDINO served any alcohol without having the necessary work card. MR. LANDINO clarified that he had worked under his previous work card which expired on December 16, 2008, and had never been revoked. He had not served any alcohol since that date.
